At its organizational session for 2008, the Council approved the provisional agenda for its substantive session (Council decision 2008/204).

At its substantive session of 2007, the Council decided to postpone further consideration of the application of the intergovernmental organization International Emergency Management Organization for observer status with the Council (Council decision 2007/260).

Documentation

Letter dated 5 June 2006 from the Secretary-General of the International Emergency Management Organization addressed to the President of the Economic and Social Council (E/2006/87)

A. High-level segment

2. High-level segment:

(a) High-level policy dialogue with international financial and trade institutions on current developments in the world economy

In accordance with General Assembly resolutions 48/162 and 61/16, the Council will hold a high-level policy dialogue with the executive heads of international financial and trade institutions during its high-level segment.

(b) Development Cooperation Forum

In paragraph 155 (b) of its resolution entitled "2005 World Summit Outcome" (resolution 60/1), the General Assembly mandated the Council to hold a biennial high-level Development Cooperation Forum to review trends in international development cooperation, including strategies, policies and financing, promote greater coherence among the development activities of different development partners and strengthen the links between the normative and operational work of the United Nations.

In paragraph 5 of its resolution 61/16, the General Assembly further requested the Council to consider launching the Forum during the high-level segment of its substantive session of 2007 and to meet thereafter in New York, starting in 2008. Accordingly, the Development Cooperation Forum was launched in Geneva in July 2007 and will hold its first biennial meeting in New York in 2008.

The Development Cooperation Forum will consider an analytical background report prepared by the Secretary-General on a review of trends and progress in international development cooperation (General Assembly resolution 61/16, para. 7).

(c) Annual ministerial review:

Implementing the internationally agreed goals and commitments in regard to sustainable development

The Council will have before it the report of the Secretary-General on implementing the internationally agreed goals and commitments in regard to sustainable development for the annual ministerial review (Council decision 2007/272), pursuant to paragraph 155 of General Assembly resolution 60/1, entitled "2005 World Summit Outcome", and paragraph 8 of Assembly resolution 61/16, on strengthening of the Council. The report will incorporate inputs from a number of relevant United Nations entities and draw upon the outcome of the global preparatory meeting of the Council, held on 6 March 2008. The report will also provide policy recommendations for consideration by the Council.

In addition, the Council will have before it the World Economic and Social Survey 2008, prepared pursuant to General Assembly resolutions 118 (II) and 52/180 and Council resolution 1983/50, and the relevant part of the report of the Committee for Development Policy on its tenth session (Council resolution 1998/46).

The Council will also have before it the relevant part of the report of the Secretary-General on regional cooperation (Council decision 2004/323).

(d) Thematic discussion:

Promoting an integrated approach to rural development in developing countries for poverty eradication and sustainable development, taking into account current challenges

Pursuant to paragraphs 155 and 156 of the 2005 World Summit Outcome, the General Assembly, in its resolution 61/16, decided that the Council should continue to promote global dialogue, inter alia, through strengthening existing arrangements, including a thematic discussion on a theme from economic, social and related fields to be decided by the Council and informed by a report of the Secretary-General.

Pursuant to Council decision 2008/208, the Council will have before it the report of the Secretary-General on the theme for the thematic discussion at its substantive session of 2008, entitled "Promoting an integrated approach to rural development in developing countries for poverty eradication and sustainable development, taking into account current challenges". By adopting this theme, the Council also intends to review progress in the implementation of the ministerial declaration of the high-level segment of its substantive session of 2003. The report will incorporate relevant inputs from a number of United Nations entities with the aim of providing an overview of the efforts to implement the 2003 ministerial declaration and of highlighting key challenges that have emerged since the adoption of the declaration. The report will also provide policy recommendations for consideration by the Council.

The Council will also have before it a note by the Secretary-General on the thematic discussion of the high-level segment of its substantive session of 2009.

B. Operational activities of the United Nations for international development cooperation segment

3. Operational activities of the United Nations for international development cooperation

(a) Follow-up to policy recommendations of the General Assembly and the Council

At its sixty-second session, in its resolution 62/208, the General Assembly:

- In paragraph 28, requested the Secretary-General to continue to broaden and improve the coverage, timeliness, reliability, quality and comparability of system-wide financial data, definitions and classifications for the financial reporting of operational activities for development of the United Nations system. It also requested the Secretary-General to build a comprehensive, sustainable and consistent financial data and reporting system for the operational activities for development of all the relevant organizations and entities of the United Nations system. The Assembly further asked the Secretary-General to include in the report to be submitted to the Council in 2008 a concise assessment of progress made and a description of planned activities.

- In paragraph 93, requested the Secretary-General to report on an annual basis to the Council at its substantive session on the functioning of the resident coordinator system, including costs and benefits.
- In paragraph 112, requested the executive boards and governing bodies of the United Nations funds, programmes and specialized agencies to assess the progress achieved, including costs and benefits, in the area of simplification and harmonization of the United Nations development system at the global, regional and country levels, analyse the potential impacts on development programming and report to the Council at its substantive session on an annual basis.
- In paragraph 141, requested the Secretary-General, after consultation with the funds, programmes and specialized agencies of the United Nations system, to submit a report to the Council, at its substantive session of 2008, on an appropriate management process, containing clear guidelines, targets, benchmarks and time frames for the full implementation of resolution 62/208, that defined results to be achieved through implementation of the resolution in a format that would allow for adequate monitoring and evaluation of the results, and interdepartmental and inter-agency measures that needed to be set in motion, for the implementation of the resolution.
- In paragraph 122 of the same resolution, the General Assembly also requested the Secretary-General to submit to the Council, at its substantive session of 2008, a programme of work for the full implementation of the action called for by the Assembly under section C of the resolution, on transaction costs and efficiency, to be completed before the end of 2010, including a specific, measurable, achievable and time-bound results framework, benchmarks, responsibilities and provisions to phase out redundant rules and procedures, as well as a timetable to monitor the progress made towards meeting those targets.

At its substantive session of 1998, the Council invited the Secretary-General to arrange for the submission by the executive heads of the United Nations funds and programmes, in consultation with the United Nations Development Group, to the Council at its annual substantive session, of a concise consolidated list of issues that were central to the improved coordination of operational activities and on which the funds and programmes sought consideration by and guidance from the Council, in particular in regard to the triennial policy review, and to include in the list recommendations whenever possible (Council resolution 1998/27, para. 4).

(b) Reports of the Executive Boards of the United Nations Development Programme/United Nations Population Fund, the United Nations Children's Fund and the World Food Programme

The Council will also have before it the annual reports of the Executive Boards of the United Nations Development Programme/United Nations Population Fund, the United Nations Children's Fund and the World Food Programme.

The Council requested the funds and programmes, through their executive boards, to include in their annual reports to the Council: (a) a section outlining measures taken in the implementation of the provisions of the triennial policy review of operational activities; and (b) a section on the activities and measures undertaken within the designated theme of the high-level meeting of the operational activities segment (Council resolution 1994/33).

The reports include a thorough analysis of problems encountered and lessons learned, with emphasis on issues arising from the implementation of the Secretary-General's reform programme, the triennial comprehensive policy review and the follow-up to international conferences, so as to allow the Council to fulfil its coordinating role (General Assembly resolutions 48/162 and 53/192 and Council resolution 1995/51).

C. Coordination segment

4. The role of the United Nations system in implementing the ministerial declaration of the high-level segment of the substantive session of 2007 of the Council

At its substantive session of 2007, the Council decided that the coordination segment of the substantive session of 2008 of the Council would focus on the role of the United Nations system in implementing the ministerial declaration of the high-level segment of the substantive session of the Council of 2007 (Council decision 2007/261).

Also at its substantive session of 2007, the Council requested the Secretary-General to submit a report on the role of the Council in the integrated and coordinated implementation of the outcomes of and follow-up to major United Nations conferences and summits, in the light of relevant General Assembly resolutions,[2] including resolution 61/16, which should also adequately reflect the work of the functional commissions in 2008, including actions taken to follow up Council resolution 2007/29, for consideration by the Council at its substantive session of 2008.

At its sixty-second session, the General Assembly reaffirmed its request to the Council to oversee the system-wide follow-up to the Geneva and Tunis outcomes of the World Summit on the Information Society, and requested the Secretary-General to submit to it at its sixty-third session, through the Council, a report for the Commission on Science and Technology for Development, as mandated by the Council in its resolution 2006/46, on the status of the implementation of and follow-up to the outcomes of the Summit (General Assembly resolution 62/182).

D. Humanitarian affairs segment

5. Special economic, humanitarian and disaster relief assistance

At its resumed organizational session for 2008, the Council decided that the theme of the humanitarian affairs segment of its substantive session of 2008 would be "Building capabilities and capacities at all levels for timely humanitarian assistance, including disaster risk reduction".

[2] 50/227, 52/12 B, 57/270 B and 60/265.

In its resolution 62/94, the General Assembly encouraged Member States to continue to strengthen cooperation and coordination between the Assembly and the Council on humanitarian issues, based on their respective mandates and taking into account comparative advantages and existing complementarities of the two bodies, and requested the Secretary-General to report to the Assembly at its sixty-third session, through the Council at its substantive session of 2008, on progress made in strengthening the coordination of emergency humanitarian assistance of the United Nations and to submit a report to the Assembly on the independent review of the Central Emergency Response Fund in 2008 (see also Council resolution 2007/3).

In accordance with Council resolution 1983/46, the Secretary-General orally apprises the Council annually on the status of the assistance to the drought-stricken areas of Djibouti, Ethiopia, Kenya, Somalia, the Sudan and Uganda.

10. Regional cooperation

The Council will consider the report of the Secretary-General on regional cooperation and take the necessary action on the decisions and recommendations of the regional commissions contained therein. The report will bring to the attention of the Council any decisions or recommendations of the regional commissions that statutorily require its approval. A section of the report will deal with the following topic: "The regional dimension of the themes of the high-level segment for 2008" (Council decision 2008/209).

The Council will also have before it the summaries of the surveys of regional economic and social conditions prepared by the regional commissions, highlighting the main problems and prospects of those regions (Council decision 1979/1).
